CASH REWARD UP TO $2,500

JANNIE WILLIAMS

On February 4, 1975, around 7:15 p.m., Jannie Williams left her home from the 1900 block of Owen Street in Flint. While driving, Jannie became ill and decided to return home. 30 minutes later witnesses reported a disturbance on the playground of the Van Nuys School in Burton, 2.5 miles away from Jannie's home. When police investigated they discovered Jannie's body and found she had been stabbed multiple times and struck by a vehicle. This led investigators back to her home where they located her 1974 Buick in the driveway with blood inside and outside of the vehicle. There was also evidence of a struggle inside the house.

Only tips received through Crime Stoppers that help lead to a felony arrest are eligible for a cash reward.
